JOANNE TINKER

JOANNE TINKER

The Woolff Gallery is delighted to present this vibrant and colourful exhibition by Joanne Tinker.

This collection celebrates Joanne Tinker's instantly recognisable artworks, at a time when we all need a bit of positivity Joanne Tinkers work offers a sense of fun and joy. In her distinct style Tinker has combined her love of handcrafting re-purposed foils and other repurposed items placing her delicate arrays of tiny, miniature goblets or rows of miniature chairs on shelves inside box frames, all with museum quality glass.

Joanne's artworks are on permanent display at the Science Museum alongside work from Vivian Westwood. Recently her artwork has appeared at London's Royal Academy Summer Exhibition, at the New York Museum of Art and Design, and in the White Rabbit Collection, Sydney. Tinker was also recommended in The Miami Herald as one of the top picks for Art Miami / Basel week 2010. Her artworks have been featured in The Telegraph, The Evening Standard, and The Guardian as well as magazines such as Vogue, Homes and Property, Living Etc... To name a few.

"Foil has long since been my primary muse.

With roots in silversmithing and jewellery design, I remain fascinated by the miniaturisation of form together with the alchemical transformation of the everyday into something eye-catching and treasured.

As I walk down the confectionary aisle I don't yearn for 90% cocoa, rather, I yearn for its iridescent wrapping, in which I see endless possibilities to reform, reshape and repeat." JOANNE TINKER
